GENESIS - 2 THE BEAUTIFUL GARDEN	WĪLÖÖLÖ – 2 AJINIINA MĪERÖ
The place where God planted a garden was called Eden. He made all kinds of trees and plants to grow out of the ground. They looked lovely and provided food for Adam, Eve and the animals. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.	Kanya ö Jwøki ni piith ajiniina yie acwøl ni Ēden. A river flowed through the garden to water the plants and then flowed out of Eden into the land outside where it divided into four other rivers.	Naam dagø mo kwödö ki dī ajiniina ni jwøya gīia nou otuy ni døny wøk ki ya ajiniina ni put ree päängngo ni nām angween.
God put Adam and Eve in the garden to work there and to care for the plants and the animals. They could eat the fruit from all the trees except from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God warned them they would die if they did so.	Jwøk Adam ki Iip acīp ya ajiniina nee tīige ni gwøk gi gīia nou tuy na marr bëët këel ki lääy. The garden was a beautiful place where Adam and Eve could walk and talk with God. All the animals ate grass and were not harmful to one another. The peace of God was there.	Ajiniina abëödö ni kany mo mīerö mo Adam ki Iip cāadhö yie ni cāän gi ki Jwøk yie.
