

DAVID (1&2 SAMUEL 16-31, SAMUEL)	DĒĒBĪT (1 & 2 CAMWĒĒL 16-31, CAMWĒĒL)
David was a brave, well-spoken, fine-looking young man who played the harp and was a warrior. He was a shepherd and the youngest of Jesse’s eight sons but was the one chosen by God and anointed with oil by the Prophet, Samuel, to succeed King Saul. The Spirit of God rested on him from that day on. He entered the service of Saul to play the harp to soothe him whenever he was depressed.	Ba Dēēbīt ena nyilal mo teek, lwaak caana beec bēētē, eni mīērō, ena ngat kwāāk ki thoom ni nāk eno oteen leny thøw. Ena dikwāac-diēk ni ena angudō ri wāāt Jeeci moa na abāra, ba bee eni na nāk ojier Jwøk ni wīē thīm nyikung-Jwøk Camwēel ki maaw nee tumē ni ena nyeya mano dōong kar Cøøl. Eni Jwiēc Wuuō-Jwøk bēedō bāātē cooth. Eni wo cøøa kar tīc mar Cøøl ni pwöt thoom ni døøya yi gø mo met kiper bēēt acaare mooe.
One day, while he was visiting his brothers, who were fighting in Saul’s army against the Philistines, their nine-foot champion, Goliath, came out to challenge them to choose someone from the Israeli Army to fight him. Whoever won would also win the battle for their side. Even though David was much shorter in height and size, he offered to fight on Israel’s behalf. He wasn’t afraid of Goliath, because, as a shepherd, he’d already killed a lion and a bear that had threatened his sheep.	Dicäng aciel ni mare liim nyīmenni moa en ri leny mar Cøøl geni ki jø Palictaen, Gøliath na nāk rum bār mare bee göörē abingween, o ø wøk ni ngwuuō ni jēētō ki dhaanhø ri jø Icireel mo gi kēedō ki gø. Ni ngat okāadhø ri leny jøw bēēt läwa kurē. Ba kēel ni bēedē ni Dēēbīt ciek ni thiinh ena Jīey man kēedē ki nyeng Icireel. Eni kār lwayō ki Gøliath kiper kanya bēedē ni kwaaya diēk da nguuwē mo ee näängö ki lääy mo teeng moo caam diēk.
Without armour and carrying only a sling and some round stones, he faced up to the giant and, in the Name of the Lord, killed him with a single sling shot to the temple. He was Israel’s hero and went on to fight many battles in Saul’s army. However, he was so successful and popular with the people that King Saul became jealous and tried to kill him.	Ni bung jap leny mo ee røø dēērē ba bee nyeng kittē ma alømme lømme mo pøøth, ena ci bang nguur-dēērē ki nyeng Jwøa dwøng, ni put gø nāk ki wang kīdī aciel keere. Ena tumō no oteen Icireel kēel mana cāath-nyīm ki lenye møøk mo thöøth ni eno odwättō ki thabac Cøøl na aciel. Kiper manaøgøno ena tumō ni ena dhaanhø mo othur kare dōc kēel mana cäng nyeye Cøøl kēeyō ni ni manynya man nāk gø.
David fled to other countries, then into the desert. His brothers and others of his father’s household joined him there, as well as men who were in distress, in	Ba Dēēbīt areng mīērī møøk ii pwōla. Ni ø nyīmenni ki dhi øtwānni ni dwätgi ki gø kēel cwøw møøk thøw mo ithgi ocwat ki bēēt kimmō, ba gi-bēēt gena tumō na cwøw

debt or discontented; four hundred men and their families in all. David led his small army in many battles against Israel's enemies, while avoiding being killed by Saul and his army. Twice, he had the chance to kill Saul, but he refused to harm God's anointed King.	mo dippë angween ki jø miëcgi. Køøre Dëëbit leny ki nyimännë mo jø Icireel abwødhe ba dëerë poot ee gwoø ki Cøøl man ba näk eni wala thabanynye mooe. Kwörë ariew ni Cøøl päththa cere ba eni wo kweer man rwaak cere rigø kiper bääte othiim Wuuø-Jwøki ki maaw na nyeya.
Eventually Saul died in a battle against the Philistines and David was crowned King.	Ki ya anguudi Cøøl athøø ri leny mana këekgi ki jø Palictaen ni ø Dëëbit ni røønyi na nyeya.
He became known as a man after God's own heart, because he obeyed God in all he did, except for on one occasion; a sin for which he paid the price. He wrote many Psalms and songs in his lifetime and fought many battles. By the end of his life, he had conquered many territories and the land finally had rest from war.	Ba ena køp ni bee ngata many Jwøk kiper mana leng dwøl ki yith giüu tiie bëet ni näk mo paa kwör møøk ni o bääyë ni pot gina duu raayi joot. Ena göödö ki dudü mo thöøth yii nür kwøwe ni këedë ki lenye mo thöøth. Kanya tume na anguun nür kwøw mooe, da miëri mo thöøth ma ajittö ki jwöm ki lenye.
God promised David that he would always have a descendant on the throne of Israel. This generational line led to Jesus.	Kar kaagø, Jwøk Dëëbit abungngë ni nyikwaaye obëedö ni käädö Icireel, ni ø manøggø ni tægë këel ri Jiicö.